DEDICATION

Beyond the shadows, through the vale stretching into the eternity from whose paths no traveler returns, there dwells the spirit of one who has passed from our midst. Though gone, the memories of him still linger and to Frank Mark, our classmate, we reverently dedicate this book.

FOREWORD

In accordance with tradition we have published another Rosebud to show our readers the development and progress that has been made in this memorable year of 1941 and 1942.

Our greatest endeavor has been to publish something interesting and worth while and we sincerely hope that the old as well as the young will derive from it some pleasure and benefit.

Whether or not it is worth the time and expense put on it is for you, the reader, to judge. And may your judgment be mercifully lenient.

LOOKING FORWARD

"That what will come, and must come, shall come well."
—Edwin Arnold.

Many years ago those finishing schools could look forward to filling particular positions in the business or industrial world and feel a sense of security in making plans for the future. Now the outlook seems clouded and the individual's goal must be changed by circumstances. All of this sudden change seems unfair.

All of us, however, must realize that life at best is uncertain. Even in a peaceful world, life makes no definite promises. We may prosper or we may be kicked around. The value of education must be measured in terms of the power it gives to make adjustments to the demands of times. All of us will have to make changes in our living habits.

Many of these changes will be unpleasant for the time being. However we should not look upon the future as being without promise. Never has there been as high a premium placed on the fellow who has initiative as there is now. The world is begging for leadership in all activities. Out of times of tribulations come new developments in medicine, industry, and social institutions which are beneficial to humanity. Your ingenuity and services will be needed in these fields.

Let us think that whatever changes in your plans you must make will be for the best. We cannot change conditions, but we can keep ourselves in line with the times. We must keep ourselves informed and open minded to whatever changes seem necessary.

—Superintendent Overmeyer

A TRUE STORY

On the eventful day of September 1, 1930, there entered the portals of the West Grade Building, 35 adventurous little men and women. Much to Miss Callahan's relief they turned out to be nicer than usual and she passed them on to Miss Newcomer with a sigh of accomplishment. Miss Hamman taught them reading, writing, and arithmetic during a tedious third year. And then through the fourth and fifth grades, Miss Dirrim and Miss Bonfiglio wielded their efforts on the hapless youngsters.

By 1935 Mr. Gurtner had a fine class of 36 brilliant, studious children. In the seventh year of progress, the class moved from the west building to the East High School. Their junior high teachers were Mr. Barr and Mr. Bowers. At last in the fall of "38" they entered the freshman class of Waterloo High School. And who is there among them that does not remember freshman initiation? They sponsored two parties their freshman year; a skating party and a Hallowe'en party at Norva Strow's. Danny Gratz was class president and provided enough humor to make up for all his blunders.

Then in the sophomore year, Roger Nelson supplied the class brains as the president, shouldering all responsibilities and fulfilling his duty to the best of his ability. Miss Parks did a splendid job of keeping these boisterous pupils under control with Mr. McClain assisting whenever it was needed.

Juniors at last! One more year to go. During this year Miss Snyder was blessed with the class. It might be added that very little effort was expended in the way of mischief. Jack Albright had the honor of class presidency. This was the year that the poor juniors gave a banquet for the seniors. It, in itself, was a wonderful affair but, oh, the moring after the night before!

Now this group of industrious pupils has attained the peak of its performance, and, in a way, very sorry that it has. Ronald McIntosh has guided us through our senior year in grand style. As a class, it has been together for twelve years, with some going out of the group and some coming in. Many of these pupils are going on to greater achievements and it can be promised that the class as a whole wishes that it could start all over again, having the fun it has had during these twelve trying years.

ABOUT THESE SENIORS

Readers, we try to show to you,
This astounding class of "42."
We ask, please bear this fact in mind,
You'll find no more of the kind.

Albright to get his "Famous Team,"
Ackerman letting off her steam.
Bowers, sometimes we think she's daff,
Bainbridge and her tittering laugh.

Bowman's salesmanship coming forth,
Brandon's heart bouncing back and forth.
Buss's love for Rex we see,
And Carroll, moving lazily.

Duncan's shy and bashful way,
Eberly's love for Bob to stay.
Jim and Art, their hay to bale,
And Danny's questions that never fail.

Aggie's eyes smile up at you,
Lowell's facts are tried and true.
Marie, who loves to laugh and tease,
Jessie, who tries so hard to please.

Kester, the lover of the class,
While all but Gail does Ronny pass.
Myers, the boy who always sleeps,
Luella, a friend to have for keeps.

Jackie, Lois, and Norva too,
For of all the mischief that they can't do.
Helen, who likes the navy way,
And Starkey wasn't here that day.

But on to Ellsworth, his love for books,
And Thomson, see how shy she looks?
Whitbey who betters her typing skill,
And Dotty can, she has the will.

Roger, the editor of our book,
Oh! And Hefty (a babbling brook).
Now don't get mad and go away,
There is still a little left to say.

The teachers taught us all they knew,
So it looks as if our class is thru.
But though we leave, you know our best,
Time alone, will tell the rest.

—Maurice Starkey

May 20, 1962

DEAR READER:

I have just arrived in Waterloo on my adventuresome and thrilling trip around the world. I thought that you might be interested to hear about that strangely different class of 1942, as I met every one of them along my way.

The first person I met was none other than Dorothy Goodwin. I saw her in a Cuban Night Club doing the new LaRoonga dance. Her manager was the well-known Bill Myers, who has had his feet safely on the ground since Superman took him for a breath-taking ride.

I journeyed on to South America where I found Kathleen Brandon in some village on the Amazon trying to inspire the native witch doctors to better tactics. Her hardest subject to inspire was Jim Fike.

Then I journeyed on to Africa where I met LeRoy Hefty trying to irrigate the Sahara desert so it would be suitable for farming. However, he was finding it difficult to tame the wild animals.

I traveled on to Paris where I watched Joy Buss, IdaBelle Bower, and Donna Bainbridge modeling exclusive hats designed by our famous classmate, Ruth Ackerman.

I went by steamship to Sweden and learned that the captain of the ship had a wife called "Helen." It was none other than the former Helen Stookey. I met the crew and found that Junior Carroll and Jackie Rowe were two of the best sailors that sail the seas.

When we arrived at Stockholm, Sweden, I found that Agnes Green and Daniel Gratz were the two greatest lovers of the country. It seems they just can't ever agree on the date of the ceremony or they would be married (same old Danny).

I traveled on to Japan, finding Mr. Arthur Fike giving instructions to the Japs on "How to Grow Tall In Six Easy Lessons." His co-worker was Luella Overholt.

I hurried on to Hawaii where I found Harold Bowman and Maurice Starkey taking lessons from the Hula girls learning to Boogie Woogie in Sarong time.

I journeyed on to Hollywood where I met the famous movie actor, Ronald McIntosh, starring in a deep, romantic role. Incidentally, his valet was our old classmate, Bill Duncan.

I went on to Nevada where I met Lowell Howard, now prospecting for a lost gold mine. He had had the faithful aid of Miss Jean Thomson throughout his, so far, unsuccessful career.

On arriving in Utah, I heard of a nice little beauty shop which was well-known throughout that community. Miss Rose Whitbey and Jessie Imhoff were the operators. I had to wait an hour in the shop for a very distinguished Professor Triplett was in the chair having his beautiful curly hair shellacked.

I hurried on to Texas where I found Marie Imhoff and Wayne Kester. I didn't get to talk to either of them for they were chasing each other around on a couple of wild broncos. It seems the feud never stopped.

I traveled on to Kansas where I had the pleasure of seeing the former Norva Strow and family. She and her husband and their ten children were celebrating their 19th Wedding Anniversary.

Upon arriving in St. Louis I learned that our beloved classmate, Naomi Eberly just took off for HongKong to regain her long lost husband.

Finally, I arrived here in Waterloo. I find that Jack Albright has a special trade of fixing flat tires (whenever he can find a tire). Roger Nelson is also in Waterloo delivering milk to all the contented citizens.

So, this, my dear reader is what happened to that delightfully different class of 1942. And do you agree with me that they are different?

Sincerely

LOIS SMITH

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the year of 1931, our class, which contained twenty-nine first graders, was taught their first school lessons by Miss Helen Callahan. From the second grade to the eighth grade the teachers were respectively, Miss Newcomer, Miss Hamman, Miss Dirrim, Miss Bonfiglio, Mr. Gurtner, Mr. Bowers and Mr. Dorton.

In the fall of 1939 our class entered Waterloo High School with a total of twenty-seven studious freshmen. Since then some have withdrawn and others have entered making at present a total of twenty-nine.

We have done our part in school activities and have had two class parties for our own enjoyment.

As Jolly Juniors, we have finished our third year. We are now looking forward to being graduated from Waterloo High School and then to a most successful future.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

Ten years ago, in nineteen hundred thirty-two and thirty-three, we got our first experience of school life. We had an enrollment of thirty-seven, being taught by Miss Callahan.

In nineteen hundred thirty-three we were promoted into Miss Gertrude Newcomer's class.

In the third grade we were taught by Miss Hamman. After this year we were ready for the fourth grade taught by Miss Dirrim.

Nineteen hundred thirty-six found us in the fifth grade taught by Miss Mary Bonfiglio. In the next year we were taught by Mr. Bruce Gurtner, getting us ready for the seventh grade in which we had an enrollment of twenty-seven.

Under the guidance of Mr. Bowers, Mr. Dorton, Mr. McClain, Miss Parks and Miss Wilson we graduated from the eighth grade into our Freshman year in high school.

We had an enrollment of forty-seven in the Freshman year due to those who joined us from Corunna.

In high school we were taught by Mr. Dorton, Mr. McClain, Miss Bachtel, Miss Parks, Miss Snyder, Miss Deer and Miss Wilson. And from there went to the Sophomore class and now have an enrollment of forty.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

In the first grade our class in number was twenty-eight. Miss Bolton was our beloved teacher. We increased and decreased through our years. When in the lower grades, I distinctly remember in Reading Class our classmate, DeVon Meyers, said "Chop, Chop, Calf." It was most amusing and most of the other members remember it, too.

In the fifth grade, we had as our teacher Mr. McIntosh, teaching for the first time. In the sixth we had the faithful Mr. Gurtner. When in the seventh and eighth grades, we were under the direction of Mr. Bowers; our members numbered thirty.

Now we are "Green Freshies" but won't be long. Forty-five enrolled at the first of this year. We have lost some members and have also gained some. Although this is true, our class still has forty-five members.

We intend to be good schoolmates with the other classes of Waterloo High School and hope that we can be of help to them. This is the history of the class that will graduate in good ole' "45."

"SOLO FLIGHT"

On the evening of April 15, the juniors of this school presented their bit in the dramatic phase of the school activities. The presentation of the junior class play "Solo Flight" climaxed the four weeks of rehearsing and working on the part of the director and participants.

Old Mr. Afton is one of those lovable Southern tyrants with a heart as big as all outdoors, and the nice, reasonable disposition of a mule! He never got to realize his dream of being a doctor so now his grandson must be one, though young Jim wants to be an aviator. It's a battle royal between the old man and the boy, with Jim's sweet mother getting it from both sides. Everytime Jim flunks another pre-med course, the tempest rages. When Jim wins a scholarship to a flying school, the cyclone hits! Jim gets kicked out of college, and loses his scholarship to boot! But Mr. Afton settles it all. He loses his fight, but he wins the hearts of the people he tried to rule. And the whirlwind scramble ends with a cheer and big laugh.

The cast of this production was composed of Alice Bowman, Delores Bowman, Mary Alice Ross, Donna Shippy, John Markley, Lewis Myers, and Billy Myers. Bob Albright and Rodney Wing were stage managers. Lois Farrington acted as business manager.

The play was ably directed by Miss Bridwell who led us through to a good performance.

THAT'S THE TICKET

A brilliantly starred production cast and directed by the very capable Miss Bridwell. "That's the Ticket" is the story of a middle class family who suddenly found themselves the possessors of a sweepstakes prize of $50,000. The only catch was the fact that they couldn't find the winning ticket. Eventually after numerous complications involving racketeers, the winning ticket was found and the hero won the heroine much to the doting mother's disgust.

The characters are as follows:

Kathleen Brandon ..... the hen-pecking mama
LeRoy Hefty ..... the hen-pecked papa
Helen Stookey ..... daughter of the above mentioned distraught couple
Wayne Kester ..... the youth who sought Helen's hand
Bill Myers ..... a helpful (?) lawyer
Jessie Imhoff ..... negro maid of the family
Lowell Howard ..... an ambulance attendant

Stage Managers ..... Albright and Nelson
Business manager ..... Norva Strow

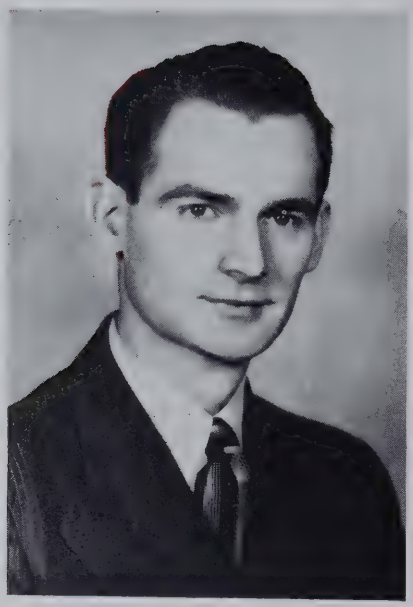
BAND



The band has had a most successful year. Under the direction of our new leader, Mr. Robert Justice, we have won honors in several competitions.

In the fall we travelled to Paulding, Ohio, and marched in an exhibition for the fair at that place. Next we marched at the Auburn Fair and entered a contest at Fremont during time of Halloween. We also led the Halloween parade at Waterloo. Then we went to Manchester, competed in a contest, and were entertained by a football game.

By donations, by selling band tags, and through the efforts of the P.-T. A., Band Parents, American Legion, Lions Club, and other organ-

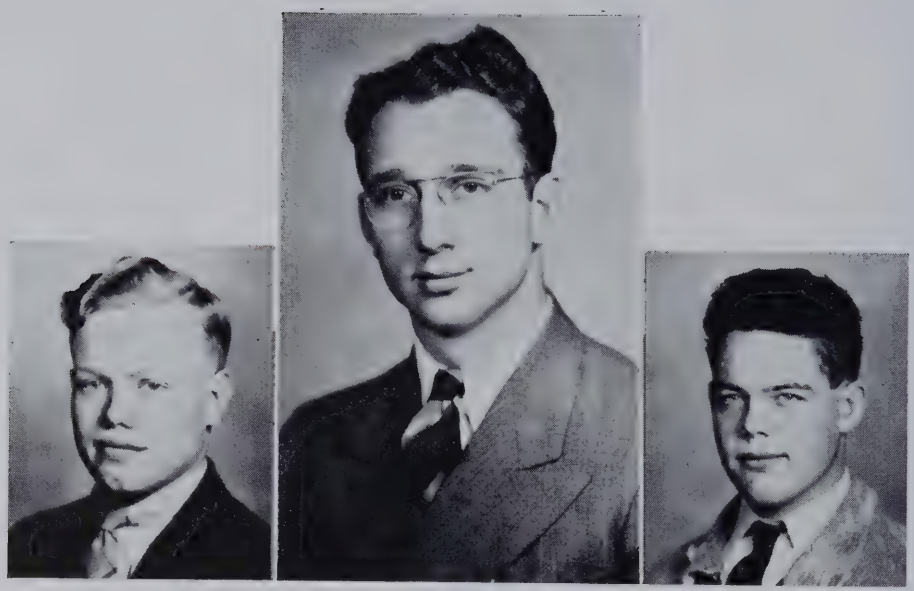
WILDCAT TAMERS



Mgr. Bill Myers Coach Joe Bohr Mgr. Ken Drew

This year Joe Bohr came from Pleasant Lake, where he coached a good Pleasant Lake team last year, to take up the coaching duties of this school. He put in a lot of hard work with the team this year and with the help of his hard working student managers turned out an average team.

FIRST TEAM

The 1941-42 basketball season turned out to be another average season. The small Wildcat quintet showed their power and ability in defeating such powerful teams as Leo, Ossian, and Angola. Although the Wildcats were handicapped by a few injuries during the year, they stood up very well under the strain of a tough season.

Among them were Art Fike, a veteran center who has been on the squad for three years and will be greatly missed in future years, Jack Albright and Jim Fike as veteran guards and co-captains, Ronnie McIntosh, a forward, and Roger Nelson, a guard. To support these veterans were five new men from the sophomore and junior classes.

Of the 22 games played the black and gold were victorious in 12 of them. The team consisted of five return seniors.

In one of the tight ball games at the first of the year the local quintet defeated the Angola Hornets by a score of 39-36. The Wildcats during the season dropped 9 and won 10. These games that were lost were games that could have been won by a little more fight, but the team hadn't learned to fight yet.

The Wildcats entered the Sectional having a good chance to win, but after two games were defeated by a powerful Auburn five. The Wildcats scored a total of 685 to the opponents 656. The two leading scorers of the year were A. Fike and J. Albright.

JIM FIKE (Mert)
Guard

Jim played a hard game at guard this year. He lead the offensive many times for he was by far the fastest player on the team. He was also co-captain of this year's team. Senior.

EDWARD GREER (Ed.)
Center

Ed was always there working for the second team. Then a change put new life in him and he came to the first team as a sub. Sophomore.

RUSSELL DREW (Russ)

Russ broke into a first team suit this year, at guard. Not in a position to be flashy but quite important in bringing victory. He will be back next year. Junior.

RONALD McINTOSH (Mac)
Forward

This was Ronald's second year as a sub. But he was a good man to have on the team for he kept the other players hustling for their positions. Senior.

JOHN MARKLEY
(Jonathan)
Forward

John played his first year on the team as a sub. But when he got into the game he demonstrated his power to the team by his spirit. Junior.

JACK ALBRIGHT (Curley)
Guard

This was Jack's second year on the first team, and he again demonstrated his power on defense as well as on offensive with his long shots. He was co-captain. Senior.

ART FIKE (Art)
Center

Art jumped center for W. H. S. this year. He played a hard and steady game with accurate under the basket shots. He was a team man and will be a loss to next year's team. Senior.

HERB HOFFMEYER (Red)
Forward

Herb played a fast game at forward this year with careful coaching. He was a good defensive man as well as offensive. He was a scoring threat to all the teams. He will be back next year. Junior.

ROGER NELSON (Rog)
Guard

This was Roger's second year on the first team as a sub. But when he got in there, he demonstrated his power on defense and wonderful fighting spirit. He is a Senior.

BOB ALBRIGHT (Robert)
Guard

Bob was a hard fighting player. He played most of the time at guard and he was always stopping the opposing team from scoring. He will be back next year. Junior.

SECOND SQUAD

Local basketball enthusiasts really interested in basketball crowded the gym for the preliminaries to see Joe Bohr's reserve boys win 12 and lose 7 games. These boys displayed the best brand of basketball of any Waterloo second teams. They performed well enough to win over such teams as Avilla, Ossian, and Butler. Most of the second team is made up of freshmen who lacked experience but played a good game of ball. As a whole the team showed great promise of being strong in the future. Some of the boys that the crowd liked and will probably be on the Varsity next year are Leach, Fike, and Sattison. These boys are all Sophomores who will make good material for Coach Bohr next year. The second team ran up 400 points for themselves to their opponents 395.

First Row: Eugene Bowman, Donald Smith, DeVon Myers.

Third Row: Roy Witt, Albert Sattison, Jim Leach, Mr. Bohr, Coach, Harold Fike, Ed Greer, Jack Wagner.

JUNIOR HIGH TEAM

First Row: Kutzner, Stanley, Williams.

Second Row: Fee, Johnson, Donaldson.

Third Row: M. Johnson, Hamilton, Geeting, Ned McIntosh, Brandon, Stroch, V. Johnson.

The Junior Wildcats again played a large number of games, winning 10 and losing 6. The Junior High with a team of size and speed used it to a good advantage this year. The boys proved willing to learn and gained valuable instruction from their coach, Ned McIntosh, who has been producing them for the High School for six years.

THE BASE RUNNERS

Waterloo came out for practice this spring with a veteran baseball squad. Those who were back from last year's team to act as mainstays of the aggregation will be Hoffmeyer at first base, Lynn in the catcher's box, B. Albright on the third base sack, Rowe at short stop, J. Albright carrying the pitching load with Drew and Leach holding outfield posts. These veterans along with a good bunch of rookies came out and showed their strength on both offense and defense in the games that they played during the season. They started the season off with Ashley, here, and dropped it. Since that time they have had a good schedule, playing when the weather permitted.

First Row: Bowman, Mullet.
Second Row: Payton, Drew, B. Albright, Lynn, Hilkey, Johnson.
Standing: Rowe, Wagner, Imhoff, Hoffmeyer, Leach, Sattison, J. Albright.

In Government Class:

Overmeyer to class: When a man is arrested on the charge of bootlegging and found guilty what does the jury do with the liquor?

Maurice Starkey: Drink it.

Gail G. to Ronnie Mc.:

Gail: There isn't a word in the dictionary that describes you.

Ronnie: You mean I'm too wonderful for words?

Gail: No, because they don't dare print that kind of words in books.

Jim Fike beats Art up every morning.

The shades of night were falling fast
When for a kiss he asked her.
She must have answered yes because,
The shades came down much faster.

In days of old when men were bold
A wilderness was here.
A man put powder in his gun and
Went to hunt a deer.
But that today has gone away
For someone's changed the plan.
A dear with powder on her nose
Goes out to hunt a man.

On the first day of school, the little boys took their seats and waited until the teacher came down among them to get their names. The first one to whom she came replied that his name was Si.

"No," the teacher corrected, "you mustn't say Si. Say Silas."

Next she came to one who said his name was Tom.

"No," said the teacher, "it's Thomas."

"And now little boy," she inquired of a lad in the end row, "what is your name?"

"Jackass," responded the bright lad.

The old lady was looking for something to grumble about. She entered the butcher's shop with a light of battle in her eyes.

"I believe that you sell diseased meat here!"

"Worse," replied the butcher blandly.

"What do you mean, worse?" demanded the astonished patron.

"The meat we serve is dead!" confided the butcher in a stage whisper.

Teacher: Who did the most good—Henry Ford or Billy Sunday?
Student: That's easy!! Henry Ford.
Teacher Why do you say that?
Student: Because Henry Ford shook the devil out of more people than Billy Sunday did.

"What is the matter?" asked the mother of a six-year-old girl as she came home almost in tears after her first day in school.
"I don't like the teacher," she said.
"Why, you hardly know her. What has she done to you?"
"When I went in, she said, 'you sit here for the present,' and she never brought it."

Ellsworth Triplett (after the dance): May I escort you home in a taxi?"
Joyce Ayers: Thank you, but I wouldn't want to put you out.
Ellsworth: Oh, I won't do anything.

Sugar is sweet,
And scarce too.
